12TH NIGHT TO KICK OFF MARDI GRAS SEASON

Eight weeks of celebration begin Monday with new additions and iconic events

ST. LOUIS, Mo.— Let the good times roll! The 46th Mardi Gras season in Soulard officially kicks off on Monday with the annual 12th Night celebration. Soulard's signature events, 12 between 12th Night and Fat Tuesday, generate more than $20 million annually for the St. Louis regional economy and make St. Louis one of the largest Mardi Gras outposts in the world.

UPDATE: Due to snowy conditions, the 12th Night celebration will take place entirely indoors at the South Broadway Athletic Club.

New in 2025:

- New Mayor's Mardi Gras Ball Venue: This iconic event is coming home to Soulard, transforming the historic Anheuser-Busch Brewery and Biergarten into a stunning new Mayor's Ball experience. Guests can expect an immersive atmosphere that showcases the unique character of the brewery, with added experiences that only Anheuser-Busch can provide such as Day Fresh Budweiser Stations, exclusive access to the brewery campus, and photo opportunities with a world-famous Clydesdale. Proceeds continue to fund the Mardi Gras Foundation's Community Improvement Grants, which have raised over $600,000 for Soulard and Downtown.
- New VIP Group Experiences: Celebrate in style with exclusive VIP group packages at the Sunset Hills Subaru Blues Alumni Experience and the Bud Light Party Tent on Grand Parade Day. These packages include premium amenities and an exclusive Mardi Gras atmosphere perfect for friends, family, or corporate gatherings.
- Carnival Tent Joins the Official Roster: New for 2025, Carnival STL is now an official Soulard Mardi Gras event, headlined by DJ FISHER.
- Introducing the Golden Ticket: Starting at $185, this ultimate Mardi Gras pass grants access to two premier venues—the Carnival Tent, headlined by DJ FISHER, and the Bud Light Party Tent, headlined by Mitchell Tenpenny.

The Season Begins with 12th Night on Monday, January 6

It all begins with the 12th Night Celebration, where the Mardi Gras Inc. board of directors calls for a crucial vote on whether to produce another grand Soulard Mardi Gras. As part of their deliberations, the board receives petitions from the community, often in the form of a song, dance, poem, oratorical flourish, or a humble toast to the season, generally accompanied by appropriately preposterous Mardi Gras attire.

After receiving these petitions, the board members cast their votes in what organizers anticipate will be a landslide victory for Soulard Mardi Gras in 2025. The celebration continues with the coronation of the new monarch. Due to snowy conditions, the traditional procession will be replaced with toasts to Soulard's iconic bars and restaurants from inside the South Broadway Athletic Club.

12th Night Tradition

In the Christian calendar, the twelfth day after Christmas is variously known as "Epiphany," "Twelfth Night" or "Kings Day." It is the day the Magi arrived in Bethlehem and marks the end of the Christmas season. Until Fat Tuesday, the pre-Lenten Soulard Mardi Gras season will light up St. Louis with a full calendar of celebrations offering something for everyone.

2025 Mardi Gras Monarch – Rex XIII, Mike Johnson

Succeeding the remarkable reign of Rex XII, Jim Reisinger, this year's crown will be bestowed upon Chef Mike Johnson, acclaimed as Rex XIII. With the Grand Parade theme, "Cooking Up a Celebration," there's no better monarch to lead the festivities than Chef Johnson, who has been a pivotal figure in St. Louis' culinary scene for more than 30 years. He has opened more than 15 restaurant concepts, including the award-winning Sugarfire Smoke House and Hi-Pointe Drive-In. His restaurants have garnered national acclaim, elevating St. Louis' culinary reputation and solidifying the city as a premier dining destination.

For more than 20 years, Johnson has been a dedicated supporter and active participant in Soulard Mardi Gras, lending his talents to events like the Cajun Cook-off, parade floats, and special catering events. With culinary roots in New Orleans, Chef Johnson has used his expertise to bring authentic flavors to one of St. Louis' most cherished celebrations.
